Chapter 1 by The Book of Stories

This city is bleak, dull, emotionless, and boring.

Everything is the same, no matter what. Everyone wears the same thing, does the same thing, and live the same way.

The sky is always grey, colorless, devoid of anything creative.

Then all of a sudden, it came.

The ghastly clouds were replaced with fluffy cotton balls, decorating the blue sky.

All business froze, as if the whole world was admiring the sky.

The clouds shot out emotion, creativity, and everything that makes a person a person inside colorful raindrops

People's faces were lighting up left and right, everyone excited for a change, except for the cause of the despair and hopelessness that used to fill the streets...
